

William Walter Wilson Cemetery:

#	Cemeteries	Sextons	Pictures
3	Wilson } Cemetery Walter } Wilson }	Wilson Family	Apparently, there is only one person buried in this burial plot. He is a poet who loved this spot to look down to the south & east over Pomo River valley. His desire was to be buried sitting up in his favorite rocking chair. His request was granted.
			This small cemetery is located about 2 miles back up the hill to the North & west of the Washoe Mountain State Park Golf Course Club House. It has a heavy chain around it making a square 'x' on the NW slope of Snake Creek Canyon.

Multiple measurement of secondary stage

William Walter Wilson Gowerd:

William Walter Wilson Cemetery:

#	Cemeteries	Sextons	Pictures
3	William } Cemetery Walter } Wilson }	Wilson Family	Apparently, there is only one person buried in this burial plot. He is a poet who loved this spot to look down to the south & east over Provo River valley. His desire was to be buried sitting up in his favorite rocking chair. His request was granted. This small cemetery is located about 2000 feet up the hill to the North & West of the Wasatch Mountain State Park Golf Course Club House. It has a heavy chain around it making a square on the NW slope of Snake Creek Canyon.
	WILLIAM WALTER WILSON, SR. Son of Thomas Wilson and Jane Pitts Wilson. Born September 19, 1825, Parish of Naticken County, Annapolis, Ireland. Married Emily Mansfield Gray. Married Mary Magdelene Marchel. Died March 11, 1880. Emily Mansfield Gray, daughter of Samuel Gray and Maria Mansfield. Born March 2, 1817, Daley, Derbyshire, England. Died May 19, 1890, Lewiston, Idaho. Mary Magdelene Marchel, daughter of Sophie Marchel Mancel and Mary Catherine Foster. Born February 29, 1846, St. Corinne, Switzerland. Died January 7, 1897, West Jordan, Utah. Children of William Walter Wilson, Sr. and Emily Mansfield Gray: William John, married Maureen Galt Mrs. James Moore (Emily Jane) Lowder Mrs. W. H. Maria Bond Thomas J., married Elizabeth Turner Robert Cunningham died in youth Maguire Cunningham, married Joseph Foster H. M. Turner James Thomas, married Rebecca Jordan George Mrs. Richard Elzie Lindsay Hale Samuel, married Clara Nelson Mrs. J. J. (Celia Matilda) Butler Children of William Walter Wilson, Sr. and Mary Magdelene Marchel: Mrs. William (Mary) Bennett Catherine died in infancy Isabella Melissa Robert Walter Mansfield, married Clara Galt Mary Josephine John Homer died in infancy Mrs. William Eugene (Julia Cordelia) Wasatch. William Wilson, Sr., lived in the Fort Spring. He was a pioneer of Utah and helped in the development of the West. He was of sturdy stock and assumed his responsibilities with courage. W.Bump 686		